Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868. The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:—

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone, and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. It WILL NOT ISSUE AN INSURED LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ÆTNA	1 31
BROOKLYN	1 12
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 05
EQUITABLE	1 04
MANHATTAN	1 43

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States, its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.
These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c., in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Beidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—this determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every county in the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

THE ORGANIZATION.

The Convention met at 12 o'clock, on yesterday, and proceeded to organize, agreeably to the determination of the caucus, held the night previous. C. J. Cowles, Esq., of Wilkes County, was chosen permanent President of the body, Mr. J. A. Burns, of Cumberland, Principal Clerk, and Mr. J. H. Boner, of Forsythe, Assistant Clerk. Jas. H. Jones, (negro,) was elected Doorkeeper, and J. T. Ball, (white,) Assistant Doorkeeper. Scattering votes were cast for Plato Durham, Esq., Col. Rodman, Mr. Hodnett and Mr. Bradley, for President.

The selection for President has thus fallen upon Mr. Cowles, of Wilkes, who has been identified with the interests of the State far more than Col. Heaton or Gen. Abbott, who were supposed to be prominent for the position; but we regret to learn that, so far, he has disappointed his friends in the poor exhibit he makes of his qualifications for the position. He is a man of passable business habits, but, beyond this, he has no claim.

It is probable that Mr. Cowles felt greatly embarrassed in his new position, and it may be, that conscience, that sleepless monitor, when not utterly dead or benumbed, had something to do with his embarrassment. For, if we have learned correctly the history of Mr. Cowles, for the last eight years, according to our construction of the Reconstruction Acts, he is not entitled to be a voter, much less a member of the Convention. It is alleged that Mr. Cowles filled offices, both before and during the war, which, according to the Reconstruction Acts, distranchise him. We do not speak positively, knowing this to be so, but we have heard the statement made by several persons. If it be not so, we shall be glad to correct it; but if he seeks shelter under the construction of the District Attorney, Mr. Starbuck, who determines the "loyalty" of men, not by what they say or do, but by their motives, which of course can only be determined by the acts and sayings of men, we shall regret it. Such a construction may do for so-called loyal men, but will hardly pass muster with those who are either intelligent or virtuous enough to do right.

The other officers, we suppose, are commended to the Convention for their well-known Radicalism. Jas. H. Jones, the negro Principal Door-keeper, no doubt, is a Radical of the true type. During the war, he was a devoted servant of President Davis, and was with him up to the hour of his capture, but he is now one of the "loyal" saints.

THE CRISIS.

Pending the late war, and almost up to the period of its termination, it was frequently remarked that the government was passing through a crisis,—that its strength and durability were being severely tested; and when the war terminated in the success of the Federal arms, the Northern people rejoiced that the government had passed through the fiery ordeal, and had come out unscathed, or, rather, that the Federal Union had been preserved, and that the principles of the Federal Constitution had triumphed. Thousands, who had fought in defence of Southern interests, were at least hopeful that the Federal Union and Constitution had been rendered permanent, and that the only thing which remained to be done was the recuperation of our lost fortunes and the cultivation of those kindly feelings which had been uprooted by a sectional war, in order to the return of harmony and concord between the two sections.

To the eye of the true statesman and patriot, the road to such an end was easily discovered. The love of the Union and the Constitution had been the great stimulus which prompted the masses of the North to sustain the war. A continuance of that spirit would have soon restored the harmony and quiet of the whole country. But alas! the same spirit of fanaticism and greed of party control, which forced the unnatural war upon the country, now seek to wreck the government entirely beyond the hope of recovery.

We believe that the utter destruction of constitutional liberty and law was never so imminent in the history of the government as at present. The scheme projected by the Radicals of Congress, for the removal of all the checks out of their way, provided by "civil-war," the Constitution for the maintenance of the authority of the Executive and Supreme Court, as equal, co-ordinate branches of the government with the Congress, if successful, will settle, perhaps for ever, for the people of the United States, the question, that the people are incapable of self-government.

We have approached no "crisis," in the history of the country, so imminently hazardous as the present. At no time have we needed so much the wisdom, the statesmanship and the patriotism of the best men of the country. One of the strongest evidences of the incapacity of the American people to govern themselves, is to be found in the proposition of the ruling party of the country, to confer universal suffrage upon the male portion of the negro race—a race semi barbarian, improvident and incapable, unaided, of providing for their corporeal wants. The evidence becomes cumulative, when, in the madness of the hour, that party will jeopard the sacred principles of our republican institutions, in order to effect their crazy schemes.

Who does not see just ahead of us, if the Radical programme, constantly evolving new schemes and new plans to secure its party triumph, is carried out, the wreck of all that is desirable or hopeful or stable in Republican government? The subordination of the Southern States to military rule, under the new Congressional programme, if not checked by the sober sense of the country, will most certainly terminate in the assumption of all government by the Congress, the driving of the President and the Supreme Court, unless they become the obsequious tools of the Congress, from their seats, and soon must follow the proclamation of martial law over the entire country. A conflict in the Congress for supremacy among its members must ensue, and the military ruler must then assume the reins to prevent utter anarchy and ruin. If matters drive on at the rate they are now going, what is to be the fate of the Republic, six months? Heaven only can determine.

GEN. GRANT.

Perhaps it is rare, that men who have once had a taste of almost imperial power should content themselves with less than its continued enjoyment, and should be willing, when the emergency which invested them with it has passed away, to subside into humbler relations. Yet there have been instances of such noble abnegation in history, and the annals of our country have furnished the most conspicuous illustration of it on record, in the person of Washington. But the day for such exhibitions has passed. Certainly, there is no prospect of its revival in the case of the present General of the armies of the Republic, (so-called.)

Gen. Grant is in a fair way to dim, if not to wither, in 1868, the laurels which, however adventitiously, he acquired in 1865. We say adventitiously, for any man of his military education and experience, combined with a proper degree of persistency and will, might have accomplished, with the same inexhaustible advantages and resources, precisely the results which he chanced to be in the position to accomplish in the Fall of 1864 and the memorable Spring of the ensuing year. However that may be, the evidences are entirely wanting that, outside of his professional capabilities, he possesses the first element of a man of mark. He certainly has not displayed the faintest shadow of civic sagacity, or the most ordinary appreciation of the requirements of an elevated statesmanship. At a period like this, in one of Gen. Grant's commanding position, and in view of the probable role which he will be called upon to play on the great theatre of national concerns, reticence or attempted concealment of views, on the great questions which are convulsing the country, are the proofs either of incompetency to grapple with the mighty exigencies of the times, or of a time serving inclination to watch the progress of events and shape his opinions by the petty and contemptible guage of policy.—What would have been thought of the great men of the country, in other perilous days of its existence, if they had been actuated by such narrow and little considerations? What would have been thought of a prospective candidate for the Presidency, pending the exciting issues of 1820, 1850 or 1860, if, when approached for an expression of views on the momentous questions of the day, he had put off his inquisitors with a dissertation on the merits of a popular filly or the points of a favorite trotter?—"Horse-talk" would hardly have passed for statesmanship in those days.

But Gen. Grant has his views, or rather his prejudices and his aspirations, though he affects to hide them under the mask of professional impenetrability. The evidences accumulate that the late move on the Radical checker-board, which is to crown him with well-nigh absolute authority and dictatorship, has both his approval and connivance. Having political aspirations, he has the right to advance them in a fair, manly and legitimate way; but to conspire, with a set of fanatics, who are laboring to destroy the government and the Union which the armies he led were seeking to save, affords a melancholy evidence how readily and often weak men will sacrifice substantial realities for a glittering bauble.

Grant, manœuvering to deprive his constitutional superior of his rightful prerogatives, is a very different personage from Grant receiving the surrender of a conquered army, and pledging them the word of a soldier for their security and protection! So History will pronounce. So the speedy verdict of the country will adjudge.

IN VIEW of Butler's visit to Richmond, a Mr. Liggett offered the following preamble and resolution in the Virginia Convention:

"Whereas, General Butler is soon to favor Richmond city with a visit,

Resolved, That the citizens thereof be requested to observe more than ordinary vigilance in the preservation of their plate and

The "Constitutional Convention," (so-called.)

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 15, 1868.

According to adjournment, the Convention was called to order at 12 o'clock,—Mr. King, Chairman pro tem., in the chair.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Logan, delegate from Rutherford.

The Chairman announced that if any delegates had arrived since yesterday, they would come forward and be qualified.

Mr. Andrews, of Wake, Secretary pro tem., proceeded to call the roll, when Messrs. Durham, of Cleveland, Laflin, of Pitt, Hayes, of Robeson, Long, of Richmond, Nance, of Robeson, Chilson, of Anson, Sanderlin, of Currituck, McCubbins, of Rowan, Benbow, of Yadkin, Bryan, of Wilkes, Blume, of Cabarrus, Nicholson, of Perquimans, and George, of Iredell, presented themselves and were qualified.

Mr. Abbott, of New Hanover, moved the Convention proceed to the election of President; which was agreed to.

A debate of some moment's duration took place, as to the mode of election; and finally it was determined to vote viva voce.

C. J. Cowles, of Wilkes, the caucus Radical candidate, was placed in nomination by Galloway, (negro) of New Hanover; and Mr. Hodnett, of Caswell, nominated Plato Durham, Esq., of Cleveland, (Conservative.)

The Convention voted as follows:

FOR MR. COWLES:—Abbott, Andrews, Ashely, Aydlott, Barnes, Benbow, Blume, Bradley, Bryan, Carey, (negro,) Carter, Candler, Cherry, (negro,) Chilson, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Daniel, Duckworth, Epps, (negro,) Etheridge, Fisher, Franklin, Forkner, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, (negro,) Garrett, George, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Wayne, Grant, of Northampton, Gully, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Harris, of Franklin, Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) Heaton, Highsmith, Hobbs, Hoffler, Hollowell, Hood, (negro,) Hyman, (negro,) Ing, Jones, of Caldwell, Jones, of Washington, King, of Lincoln, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Laflin, Lee, (negro,) Logan, Long, Mann, Mayo, (negro,) McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Newsom, Nicholson, Patrick, Parker, Parks, Petree, Peterson, Pierson, (negro,) Pool, Ragland, Ray, Reid, Renfrew, Rhodes, Rich, Robbins, (negro,) Rodman, Rose, Smith, Stilly, Stillwell, Sweet, Taylor, Teague, Tourgee, Troglen, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker, Williams and Williamson, (negro.)

FOR MR. DURHAM: Messrs. Dowd, Graham, of Orange, Hare, Hodnett, McCubbins and Sanderlin.

Mr. Durham voted for Mr. Hodnett; Mr. Ellis for Mr. Bradley, and Mr. Lennon for Mr. Rodman.

The Chairman then announced the election of Mr. Cowles, and appointed Messrs. Heaton and Abbott to escort him to the chair.

On assuming his seat, the President gave utterance to a few almost incoherent remarks about his not retaining his ancient predilections for color, and offered a premature apology for future blunders, closing his painful effort by a very candid and creditable acknowledgment of utter incapacity to fill the position.

Mr. Heaton, of Craven, moved that a permanent Secretary be chosen. Adopted.

Galloway, (negro) of New Hanover, offered the name of J. A. Burns, of Cumberland, for that position. There being no opposition, he was, on motion, declared elected.

Jno. H. Boner, being nominated by Mr. Abbott, as Assistant Secretary, and, there being no opposition, was also declared elected.

After a good deal of wrangling as to the manner of electing J. H. Jones, negro, to the position of Principal Doorkeeper, a vote viva voce was agreed upon, taken and resulted in sustaining a previous resolution declaring him duly chosen to the position.

Hood, (negro) of Cumberland, nominated J. T. Ball, (white man) for Assistant Doorkeeper, and moved that the election be made by acclamation; no one cared to object and it was carried.

Mr. Abbott offered a resolution, adopting the rules of order used by the House of Commons, so far as applicable, until other wise ordered.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, moved an amendment, substituting the rules of the Convention of 1865–66, on the ground that the last Legislature was "disloyal," and it was adopted.

Harris, of Wake, (negro) moved that the newly elected officers enter at once upon their duties; but

Mr. Smith, of Wilkes, moved that they first be required to "take the oath," and it was so ordered.

Mr. Burns and Mr. Boner then came forward, took the oath, and assumed their seats.

Mr. Heaton introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee of two from each Judicial District be appointed by the President, whose duty it shall be, at the earliest moment practicable, to consider and report the best mode of proceeding to frame a constitution and civil government, according to the provisions of the acts of Congress. Adopted.

Mr. Sweet, of Craven, offered a resolution, which was adopted, authorizing the President to appoint a Select Committee of five, to frame rules for the guidance of the body.

The following resolution was introduced by Mr. Pool, of Pasquotank:

Resolved, That this Convention, being called to frame a Constitution, republican in form, no proposition of a purely legislative character shall be entertained until such Constitution shall have been adopted.

This elicited quite a spicy little debate, which was participated in by Messrs. Watts, Tourgee and E. W. Jones. The latter concluded his remarks by moving to lay the resolution on the table.

The yeas and nays were called, and resulted in the rejection of the motion to table—yeas 44; nays 53.

Mr. Forkner, of Alleghany, moved to refer the matter to a Committee of three.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, insisted that it should be adopted, without further action; When, a motion to adjourn until to-morrow, 10 o'clock, A. M., was made and adopted.

THE MAJORITY of the Committee on compensation, in the Mississippi Convention, have reported in favor of $20 per diem for the President and $10 for the members, $15 for the Secretary, $10 each for his assistants, $10 for the Sergeant-at-arms, and twenty cents mileage. Wonder how much our unselfish patriots will be satisfied with? We remember the howl of indignation which the Radical press raised, when the last "rebel" Legislature voted its members $6 per day, when the Treasury and the people were in a better condition than they are at present.

JUDGE THURMAN has been elected United States Senator from Ohio.

THE RADICAL SUBVERSION OF THE GOVERNMENT.

As the National Intelligencer remarks, from the first moment when the Radical faction in Congress began to tinker at the Constitution, they have gone continually and with fearful rapidity from bad to worse. From the moment when they took the first step in the direction of maintaining party ascendancy through Congressional legislation "outside of the Constitution," they have been hurried onward in a fatal career of flagrant wrong, outrageous usurpation, unblushing fraud, and treasonable revolution, until, in their madness and desperation, they have been driven to the last resort of openly attempting to abrogate entirely both of the other co-ordinate and independent branches of the Government—the Executive and Judicial Departments—and subjecting them absolutely to military dictation and control.

That our readers may see how their latest plan to destroy the government is received at the North, we compile the following extracts from leading journals. We might multiply them almost indefinitely, but these will suffice:

From the New York Times (Republican.)

"In a party sense, the movement is destructive. Reconstruction has put the Republican party on its trial, and the verdict must be against it, if, after two years' experimentalizing, it confesses itself no nearer success than when it started. The country has sustained it so far, under a belief that it would quickly and safely restore the integrity of the Union. With what propriety or confidence, with what justice or decency, will it be possible to ask for further support, if the toils and devices of two years are declared by their authors an ignominious failure? What reliance can be placed on the capacity—what trust in the judgment—of Republican statesmanship, if it thus repudiate its own handiwork?"

From the New York Herald.

"Reconstruction moves onward unswervingly in its revolutionary career. The House of Representatives will have before it to-day, from its "Reconstruction Committee," the bill to establish an imperium within the limits of the United States. It seems that the system of five military districts is not, in its operation, sufficiently destructive to suit the radical purpose. It does not stamp out the States. It does not crush beyond all semblance of recognition the old social and political forms with which we were familiar in the ten Southern communities. That system does not satisfactorily put the white man's head under the nigger's heel. State lines are left—State Courts, State Governors and State spirit. If the law presses too hard—if the radical will is too despotically put in force by some tyrant schooled in the small dominion of his regiment—there is a remedy for the people: the national Eecutive reduces the suddenly exalted captain general to his little level, and puts in his place some man less ready to pander to the mad extravagance of political passion. And this, in the Radical view, is all wrong. Radicalism holds that it blundered when it recognized the States even as geographical quantities and defined its districts by State lines. It argues that it has no power unless it has all power; admits that its purpose is so little consonant with our national spirit that it cannot be executed so long as there is authority left anywhere to dispute it. Hence it now proposes to merge its five military districts into one grander district exactly analogous to the Roman imperium. Under the Roman republic all the great dependencies—as Gaul, Spain, Germany, Syria, Greece and Africa—were held by absolute military power, subject only to a commander and the Senate. No courts existed save by the will of the commander. There were no local governments except on sufferance and as managed by his creatures to plunder the country more completely. And this is a model of the form of government that the Congress of the United States now proposes to set up in a territory comprising ten States of this Union—ten States of a nation whose primary political principle is the sovereignty of the people. In setting up this imperium within our borders Congress abolishes the States in all their political and legal forms, sweeps away the governmental system and the courts, all the machinery that gives stability to order and security to property, and puts in the place of everything one military commander—General Grant. It declares the Constitution of the United States null and void by saying that in ten States of the Union the President no longer has executive authority, and that he will be guilty of a misdemeanor if he exercises in those States the duties the Constitution imposes upon him. And in all this there is no principle—no great point of national safety to secure—nothing whatever but the nigger and a party result. In view of order and law and an old established system the nigger cannot rise. But return to chaos, throw down all the present relations of things, reduce society to the primitive barbarous level, so that the nigger and the white man may start even, then give the nigger an army for his ally, and perhaps he may come out ahead. This is the idea that underlies the new bill.

* * * Let the people of the North reflect on the unquestionable fact that the danger in this matter is to their own liberties, not to those of the Southern people; for the South is so beaten down now that it is out of fortune's power; there is hardly a depth of political degradation that its people have not sounded under radical military rule, and they seem to feel that any change may possibly be for the better. The danger is to those who are still free. The danger is that as we grow daily in anarchy, as we grow from bad to worse under the misgovernment of a Congress that forgets its plain duty to the nation in the pursuit of partisan schemes, the people by and by may grow to envy even those who live under the tranquility of a despotism, and may look on with satisfaction when the commander of an army posted to keep down the Southern people (perhaps recruited to a great extent in the Southern States) shall suddenly march to Washington, seize the Capitol and disperse that chattering, jabbering, corrupt and contemptible rabble, the Congress of the United States."

From the Baltimore Gazette.

"The Reconstruction Committee is stated to have agreed, on Saturday, upon resolutions, which it proposes to recommend to Congress for adoption. They will be found elsewhere in this day's issue of the Gazette. They virtually strip the President of the powers of his office, in terms constitute Gen. Grant absolute dictator, and hand over ten States to anarchy and despotism. As we took occasion to remark when the infamous scheme was first broached in Congress, it is trifling with the sense of the country to discuss this usurpation in connection with the Constitution and laws of the United States. If the people are prepared to submit to the total and final subversion of Constitutional government and civil liberty, then enlargement and ruin are now near at hand. If they would save themselves they must manifest now, or never, the patriotism and the resolution that have ever distinguished men who are fit to be free."

From the New York World.

"The enormity of this attempt to tamper with justice in her highest sanctuary, this attempt to destroy the independence of the judiciary, this attempt to degrade and subvert the Constitution by enacting that the laws of Congress deserve thrice the respect which is due to it,—the enormity of this attempt cannot be overstated by any strength of language. The proverb that whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad, was never more fitly applied than to this last project of the Republicans.

In the first place the proposal of such a law is a confession that the Reconstruction acts violate the Constitution; a confession that Congress is aware that they cannot pass the ordeal of the judicial examination by an impartial and fairly constituted tribunal.—The bill so suddenly proposed is prompted by the expectation that the Reconstruction acts will be brought before the Supreme Court within the next few days. The bill of course cannot be retrospective; for in that case it would unsettle every constitutional decision ever rendered by the Supreme Court. A disgraceful attempt is therefore to be made by Congress to run a race against the Supreme Court, and hurry an act through impairing the powers of that tribunal before it shall have time to set aside an unconstitutional law. So many Republicans have openly questioned or denied the constitutionality of the Reconstruction acts, that it is no wonder Congress dares not trust the Supreme Court to pronounce an opinion on the subject. But a bill to deprive judges of their authority is so bold and so wild an infringement of the rights of the Court, that it will react against the party more destructively than anything it has yet done. The object of the bill is to punish judges for perceiving that an act of Congress is unconstitutional, by depriving them of their authority. Its practical effect will be the same as removing a certain number of dissenting judges from the bench during the trial of a particular class of cases. It is all the same whether Judge Nelson is legislated off from the bench outright, or an act is passed depriving his opinion of its influence upon a decision. It is all the same whether Congress flings out three judges in order to reduce the Conservative predominance, or whether it simply nullifies their votes by declaring that three judges on one side shall balance six on the other.

In the next place, this bill is foolish and suicidal, because the Supreme Court has just the same power to declare it unconstitutional, as any other. This the Court would unquestionably do; and the Republican party would incur the odium of passing such a bill without reaping for it any advantage."

THE
ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES IN DEATH IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,
MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT FOR THE STATE OF
NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the

of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a "STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual Insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

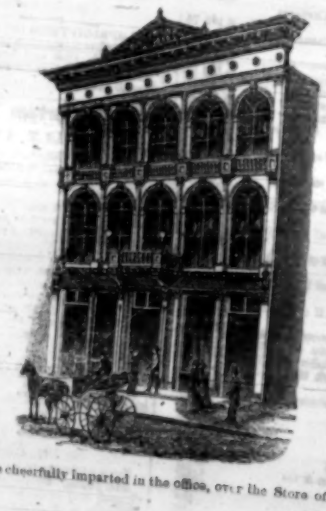
ABOVE LIABILITIES.

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION. A VERY IMPORTANT FACT. HAS 45,000 MEMBERS. AND HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.



Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

MISTAKES AND CHANGES.—In transcribing our lists of subscribers, and also entering a large number of new names for the Sentinel, mistakes may occur. We beg all our friends to notify us, immediately, of any error or failure. Don't delay any longer than you discover the failure or error.

SCHOOL NOTICE.—The Male School of the Rev. Dr. Mason, assisted by Mr. Samuel G. Ryan, at the old and well-known Raleigh Academy, commences on to morrow.

THE SNOW.—We saw two intelligent gentlemen from the North, on yesterday, who, happening to pass through the City, looked in for a moment on the un-Constitutional Convention. They declared that the sight alone was worth their trip, and that they would have something to tell their people when they returned. We wish that the whole North could take a peep into the interior of the various Southern Capitols, just now.

MONEY LOST.—A valuable correspondent at Kinston informs us that he sent us money by letter, some weeks ago. The letter did not arrive. This is the first instance, for some weeks, so far as we have learned, of the failure of money sent us to arrive. We do not take risks by mail, and advise our friends to send by Express or pay to any Post Master, who can issue a money order and send that to us.

GREEN.—We learn that, on the arrival, at the Depot, of one of the delegates to the "Convention," on Tuesday morning, seeing a negro at the cars, he called him and told him to carry his trunk to the keeper of the Capitol, and tell him to provide him a good room, and have him a good breakfast quick! We have not learned whether the individual found lodgings at the Capitol or not.

THE DAILY PRESS.—The first number of this paper (successor to the Progress) made its appearance on yesterday. It presents a neat appearance and its columns are well-filled. It is published, as heretofore announced, by an association of printers, and is to be edited by Messrs. Q. & C. M. Busbee. We wish all of our friends of the Press all imaginable success.

IT is neither "Boots" nor Booker. See "Convention" proceedings.

NORFOLK.—About 400 bales of cotton, besides rosin, tobacco and cotton yarn, were received from North Carolina, by the Seaboard Road, at Norfolk, on Saturday last.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.—At a meeting of the delegates from the City Fire Companies, held at the Mayor's office, on Tuesday night, J. C. Brewster, Esq., presiding, and C. D. Heartt, Esq., acting as Secretary, the names of the following gentlemen were presented, and agreed upon, as proper candidates for the office of Chief Engineer:

Joseph Backalar, Joseph P. Praire, and John J. McGuire.

The election was appointed to come off on this (Thursday) evening, between the hours of 5 and 9, at the Mayor's office, under the superintendence of H. T. Clawson, Poll Holder.

The following gentlemen, in addition to those heretofore mentioned, have been licensed to practice in the County Courts, viz:

Erasmus F. Page, Wake.
William R. Cox, Wake.

ANOTHER CLUB.—We make our acknowledgments again to our excellent friend, Pulaski Cowper, Esq., of Washington, for an additional Club of Subscribers to the Daily Sentinel. To all of our friends in the State, we say, "Go and do thou likewise."

STATE NEWS.

—The Rector of St. James' Parish, Wilmington, acknowledges gratefully the receipt of thirteen hundred dollars for the benefit of St. James' Home for the indigent, aged and orphans—the fruits, in trying times, of the energy of the ladies of the Parish and of the liberality of the people of Wilmington.

—The Postmaster at Tarboro' has issued over two hundred money orders since September 9th. Forty-seven, amounting to $1,364,89, were drawn upon and paid at the Petersburg office.

—In respect to the memory of the Right Reverend Bishop Hopkins, of Vermont, Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America, St. James' Church in Wilmington was dressed in mourning on Sunday last. The altar was covered with a purple cloth, with the inscription, "Blessed are the Dead who die in the Lord," and the galleries were hung around with the long gray moss of the Cape Fear woods. The announcement of the death of the venerable Bishop was made by the Rector during morning service, who, in a few brief remarks, paid a feeling tribute to his memory.

—The Assistant Assessor reports that, up to the present date, 8,200 bales of cotton have been shipped from Edgecombe county, upon which the tax has been paid to the amount of $61,868.

—The store of Dr. J. F. Foulkes, in Fayetteville, was destroyed by fire on Friday evening last, together with his valuable stock of goods. Much of the stock of Messrs. J. D. Kyle & Co., and Mr. A. R. Carver, adjoining, was also destroyed.—The burned building was owned by Jas. Kyle, Esq., and was not insured. Dr. Foulkes' stock was valued at $14,000 and was insured for $8,000. Messrs. Kyle & Co. were insured for $10,000 in the Home and Underwriters, both Northern Companies, and had in store a stock of at least $22,000 and more, of which they saved, in damaged and all, not more than $3,000 worth. The building occupied by Mr. Carver was not burned, but his loss was heavy from damage and breakage, estimated to be at least $9,000. The News says that this is a heavy blow to the property-owners, besides a serious loss to the community.

—The Fayetteville News pays the following tribute to that excellent man, the late Charles T. Haigh, of that town:

"It becomes our melancholy duty to announce the death of one of our oldest, best and most esteemed citizens, Mr. Chas. T. Haigh, on Wednesday last, the 8th inst., at about noon, aged nearly 74 years. Mr. Haigh was born in England, on the 8th of June, 1794, and had been a citizen of this place since 1818—59 years. He was in all that time one of our leading business men, and did, for a great number of years, a large and very prosperous business, from which he had, up to the close of the war, amassed a very handsome fortune, and which was nearly all swept away at once by the great calamity that befel us all. He held, for many years before his death, the Presidency of the Branch of the Bank of Cape Fear in this town, and the Presidency, also, of the Rockfish Manufacturing Co. In his lifetime he dispensed from his ample fortune charity with no stinted hand; and the loss of that fortune may be said to be the sore loss of others as well as his own. It is superfluous for us to say to those who knew Mr. Haigh—and he was extensively known in this and many other States—that the least suspicion of his integrity in any relation of his life was deemed among the impossibilities. By birth, education, tastes, habits and association, he was a gentleman—and more, he was a just man and a Christian."

A NEGRO VICE PRESIDENT.—It is seriously contemplated, I can assure you, by a considerable portion of the Radical party, to strengthen the Grant ticket by placing the name of Fred. Douglass upon it as a candidate for the Vice Presidency. This is deemed absolutely necessary to appease Wendell Phillips, Garrison, Butler, Greeley, and others of like proclivities.—Wash. Cor. Balt. Gazette.

Jeames H. Harris, of the Gorilla Convention, will now have a chance to take another Galloway, in the person of the only native Galloway, from New Hanover county. Please don't Cropper cars, Jeames!—Wilmington Star.

Thursday Morning Dispatches.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, P. M.

House.—The Committee on Public Lands reported adversely to giving the public lands to negroes under the Homestead law.

A bill amending the Homestead law, so as to allow settlers to make affidavits before Clerks of County Courts, passed.

The Reconstruction bill was resumed, Mr. Wood, having the floor, characterized the bill as a monstrosity and the most infamous act of all the infamous acts of this infamous Congress.

Mr. Bingham called Mr. Wood to order.

Mr. Ross suggested to Mr. Wood to modify by saying so-called infamous Congress.

The Speaker decided the word out of order.

Mr. Wood refused to modify them, and the House, by a party vote, refused to hear him any further.

Mr. Dawes offered a resolution of censure, which passed by a party vote, and Mr. Wood approached the bar of the House and was censured.

The discussion took a wide range. Mr. Butler gave notice of an amendment, declaring all the State offices vacant, authorizing the Conventions to fill them, and making it the duty of the District Commanders to confirm and instal the Convention appointees.

Senate.—The Chair presented a memorial from the Mississippi Board of Registration, setting forth the general destitution. They state that if something is not done soon, the Government must provide a large burying ground.

Mr. Morton presented a petition from 4 000 negroes of the District, asking labor on the public works—stating that they were excluded from competition, and whitemen refused to work with them.

A joint resolution, paying Spain $20,000 for a steamer, seized at Port Royal by Sherman, passed.

The anti contraction bill was passed with a verbal amendment by 23 to 4.

The amendment forbidding expansion failed.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, P. M.

The Connecticut Republican Convention have nominated Marshall for Governor.

The Cabinet had an extra session of two hours to-day.

Sherman and Grant had a long interview with the President.

It is officially denied that Stanton drew his salary during suspension.

GEN. GRANT vs. MEADE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, P. M.

This morning's Intelligencer says: "It is understood that, within a few hours after the reception of the dispatch, announcing the removal by Gen. Meade of Gov. Jenkins, on account of his refusal to sanction the payment of the Georgia negro Convention out of the State funds, Gen. Grant expressed the opinion that Gen. Meade had acted hastily and should not have removed him; and that the Convention had no right to be paid out of the State Treasury."

VIRGINIA CONVENTION—JUDICIAL DECISION.

RICHMOND, Jan. 15, P. M.

In the Convention, charges were preferred by the Conservative members against President Underwood, that he cut off debate and refused an appeal from his decision yesterday, upon the visit of Butler.—The Convention refused to receive them, 44 to 39.

The second article of the Constitution, being amended so as to prohibit Justices of the Peace being members of the Legislature, was adopted.

A resolution, thanking the President for reinstating Stanton, was offered by a negro delegate, and tabled.

In the Supreme Court of Appeals, to-day, on a habeas corpus case of a pardoned convict, whose release was refused by the Superintendent of the State Prison, on the ground that Pierpoint had no power to pardon—his term as Governor having expired Jan. 1st.—the Court decided that Pierpoint held over until a successor was qualified, and the convict was released.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION, &c.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 15, P. M.

The Convention, to-day, perfected a permanent organization, by the election of Dr. A. G. Mackey, President, Carlos Stollbrand, Secretary,—both white. The Assistant Secretary, Engrossing Clerk, Doorkeeper, and Sergeant-at-arms, are all black.

Gen. Scott issues a circular letter, to-morrow, announcing that the Government will again commence the distribution of food among the extremely needy people of the State.

GEORGIA CONVENTION.

ATLANTA, Jan. 15, P. M.

The preamble of the new Constitution and two sections of the Bill of Rights were adopted today.

A resolution was adopted, requesting General Meade to order the State Treasurer to pay to the Financial agents of the Convention a sufficient sum to defray all its expenses.

Also requesting the General to order an examination of all jails and to release all unlawfully confined.

A resolution was adopted calling on Congress to vote an appropriation for the expenses of the Convention.

The report of the Educational Committee provides separate Schools for the races, and appropriates all the net income of the State Road, a poll tax of two dollars, all militia fines, the proceeds of all State lands and the surplus funds in the Treasury at the close of each fiscal year.

A general order appeared this morning, announcing the orders from the War Department and Gen. Pope, forbidding any interference, under color of State authority and by the State Courts, with persons in the military service of the Bureau for acts done under orders.

Considerable excitement continues and all Washington intelligence is eagerly sought.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, GREATLY FACILITATES the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

DAILY SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1868

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN JUDGE ALDRICH AND GENERAL CANBY.

FAREWELL, S. C., December 27th, 1867.

Sir:—I have been informed that Mr. Hood, the Treasurer of the State, has been instructed by you not to pay me my salary after the 31st. of October.

When I received your "Special Order No. 183," suspending me, I did not suppose you intended to deprive me of the property in my office. It never occurred to me that, because I could not conscientiously carry out your General Orders as to juries, I was to be punished by being deprived of the salary, which, in the impoverished state of the country, is the only means left to me for the support of my family.

I trust it is only necessary to bring to your notice the fact that the Judge has a property in his office, and that, during his suspension, he cannot be legally deprived of its emoluments.

As I have no idea that your purpose is to inflict personal injury on one who, I trust, has shown himself as zealous and honest in the discharge of his duties as you have in the discharge of yours, I therefore respectfully submit this question to your more mature consideration, in the hope that upon investigating the legal proposition, you will see that you have, unintentionally done me an injustice.

Very respectfully,
Your obt. servt.,
A. P. ALDRICH,
Law Judge of South Carolina.
Maj. Gen. CANBY, Commanding District.

A. P. ALDRICH, Esq., Barnwell Court House, S. Carolina:

Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication in relation to the salary claimed by you, as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions, and to state in reply, that, as your action involved a serious delay in the administration of justice, and imposed upon the state, in its impoverished condition, additional expenses for the maintenance of prisoners, and for holding special terms of the courts in several of the districts in the Southern Circuit, I did not consider it proper or just to add to those burdens, by authorizing compensation for services that were not rendered.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
ED. R. S. CANBY,
Brevet Major General Commanding.

BARNWELL, January 7, 1868.

SIR: I reply immediately to your note of the 4th January, just received.

I did not expect and did not ask, that you, a Military Commander, would consider the constitutionality of the reconstruction acts. But I did expect that you would point to the clause in those acts which empowered you to suspend me from the performance of the duties of my office, and then to deprive me of my property in that office, by ordering the State Treasurer to withhold the salary which the State contracted to pay me when I was commissioned one of her judges. You will remember that I am still a Judge of South Carolina. You have not ventured to remove me yet, and if you had, you cannot deprive me of my office. You cannot point to any authority in the acts, but excuse your injustice and usurpation by saying, "that as your action involved a serious delay in the administration of justice, and imposed upon the State, in its impoverished condition, additional expenses for the maintenance of prisoners and for holding special terms of the courts in several of the districts in the Southern Circuit, I did not consider it proper or just to add to those burdens by authorizing compensation for services that were not rendered."

I indignantly repel this slander. I was in the actual performance of my duties, under the laws of the State of South Carolina, that had conferred on me my judicial office, and to whom, alone, I am accountable, when you, by a high handed usurpation of authority, not conferred on you by any law of Congress, or article of war, suspended me in the very effort I was making to administer justice to a suffering people. What justice was to be administered by such juries as you had directed to be drawn? You know or should have known, that your orders as to juries was not authorized by any act of Congress. You know or should have known that juries selected as you directed presented the most serious impediment to the administration of justice. You know or should have known, that my oath of office prevented me from carrying out your order—and yet, as a mere partisan, without considering the dignity of my position, the character of my beloved State, or the responsibility of your own station, in the very wantonness of power, you put upon me an indignity which was unworthy of the great government you represent, and, I must add, appears to me now to be not only resentful, but unmanly. Let your brother officers of the old army judge.

As a conscientious judge and a man of honor, I could not carry out your order without violating my oath of office. I said so frankly. You suspended me. I yielded without a murmur, and now, because I have a conscience, that will not permit me, as I think, to violate my oath of office, with high-handed tyranny, you not only deprive me of the dignity of that office, but rob me of its support, and then insultingly tell me that my "action has involved a serious delay in the administration of justice," forgetting that it was your own unauthorized and officious interference with the laws of the State, that placed the first and only impediment in the way of justice. With what consistency can you talk about the "impoverished condition" of the State, when only on the 3d of December last, you issued General Orders No. 199, assessing a tax for the very salary you have directed the Treasurer to withhold, and did actually make an appropriation for its payment? How does it help the people of an impoverished State, to wring taxes out of them, which you afterwards direct to be locked up in the Treasury?

Why trouble yourself about State burdens, when the people (I mean white people, tax-payers,) with singular unanimity approve my course, and sustain me under my present trials?

No sir, I am not deceived, nor is the country, by this mere subterfuge. You cover this bold and bad attempt, to destroy the independence of the judiciary, at the same time that you make your effort to break down the great bulwark of liberty—the trial by jury,—with a very flimsy veil.

I commend you to the perusal of General Hancock's Special Order No. 205, to show you what a patriotic officer can do, whose desire is to heal the wounds of a prostrate and bleeding country.

But I do not complain. My only purpose now is to repel your unjust and cruel aspersion, and to put on record my protest against your monstrous tyranny.

I will leave my native State to-morrow, in deep sorrow and despondency, to seek a support for my wife and children, in hospitable Georgia, where I am accused of a hearty welcome. Thank God, in my temporary exile—for I am coming back when you go—I will be sustained by the consciousness of having done my duty, and the future fathers that the people, the great judge in this case, will soon do justice to you and to me.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
A. P. ALDRICH,
Law Judge of South Carolina.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C., Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.
The principal markets will be regularly published.
Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.
Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,	$8 00
" " six months,	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,	4 00
" " six months,	2 00
" " three months,	1 00
Weekly " for one year,	2 00
" " six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people.—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBT.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1867.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognising or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District, County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
